NOTICE

Defendants the District of Columbia and Chief Cathy Lanier (collectively “the District”), by and through undersigned counsel, respectfully note the issuance, today, of a Memorandum Opinion and Order (copies attached) in Heller v. District of Columbia, No. 08-01289 (RMU), granting summary judgment to the defendants on a similar challenge to the District of Columbia’s firearms laws.

That decision noted, inter alia, that “intermediate scrutiny” was the appropriate standard of review, see Mem.Op. at 10–14, and that the disputed provisions withstood such review. The decision held that the provisions “permissibly regulate the exercise of the core Second Amendment right to use arms for the purpose of self-defense in the home.” Id. at 2.

The decision also stated that the fact that the challenged laws may be more restrictive than other jurisdictions’ is “of no moment” because the District is “an urban locale that faces a unique set of threats,” and its laws are both usual and reasonable. Id. at 29.

DATE: March 26, 2010

Respectfully submitted,

PETER J. NICKLES
Attorney General for the District of Columbia

GEORGE C. VALENTINE
Deputy Attorney General, Civil Litigation Division
