1. Plaintiff BRENDAN RICHARDS is an honorably discharged United States Marine who saw combat duty in Iraq. He is associated with and exercises membership rights in both the THE CALGUNS FOUNDATION, INC., and THE SECOND AMENDMENT FOUNDATION, INC.

a. On May 20, 2010, RICHARDS was wrongfully arrested for possession of an Assault Weapon and spent six (6) days in the Sonoma County jail while his family tried to raise the funds for him to make bail in a state criminal case which was dismissed. He was factually innocent of the charges brought.

b. On August 14, 2011, RICHARDS was wrongfully arrested a second time for possession of an Assault Weapon and spent four (4) days in the Sonoma County jail awaiting bail. Again the charges against him were dismissed. He was factually innocent of the charges brought.³

2. Plaintiff RICHARDS, along with the Institutional Plaintiffs CALGUNS FOUNDATION, INC., and SECOND AMENDMENT FOUNDATION, INC., seek declaratory relief that the California Penal Codes and Regulations defining Assault Weapons are unconstitutionally vague and ambiguous and therefore result in wrongful arrests and the chilling of a fundamental right to “keep and bear” arms of ordinary and common design.

3. Plaintiff BRENDAN RICHARDS also seeks monetary damages and injunctive relief against the SONOMA COUNTY SHERIFF’S OFFICE and Deputy GREG MYERS for unlawful seizure of his person and his firearms.

³ The Motion to Dismiss brought by Defendants Harris and California Department of Justice in the related cases was argued on August 5, 2011. Richards’ new arrest occurred on August 14, 2011, and the case was dismissed on September 19, 2011. Plaintiffs immediately brought this new development to the attention of the Defendants and asked if they would stipulate to a joint statement informing the Court of this new fact. The Defendants declined that invitation and the Plaintiff was not aware of any authority for alleging new facts once a Rule 12 motion has been submitted to the Court.

4. Plaintiff BRENDAN RICHARDS is a natural person and citizen of the United States and of the State of California. He is an honorably discharged United States Marine with six months of combat duty in Iraq.

5. Plaintiff THE CALGUNS FOUNDATION, INC., (CGF) is a non-profit organization incorporated under the laws of California with its principal place of business in San Carlos, California. The purposes of CGF include supporting the California firearms community by promoting education for all stakeholders about California and federal firearms laws, rights and privileges, and defending and protecting the civil rights of California gun owners. As part of CGF’s mission to educate the public – and gun-owners in particular – about developments in California’s firearm laws, CGF assists in the maintenance and contributes content to an internet site called Calguns.net. [<http://www.calguns.net/calgunforum/index.php>] On that website CGF informs its members and the public at large about pending civil and criminal cases, including but not limited to: arrests, convictions and appeals relating to California gun law. The website hosts forums and publishes notices that document the concerns that California gun owners have about possible arrest, prosecution and conviction for running afoul of California’s vague and ambiguous laws relating to so-called Assault Weapons. CGF represents its members and supporters, which include California gun owners and Plaintiffs HAYNIE and RICHARDS. CGF brings this action on behalf of itself and its supporters, who possess all the indicia of membership.

6. Plaintiff SECOND AMENDMENT FOUNDATION, INC., (SAF) is a non-profit membership organization incorporated under the laws of Washington with its principal place of business in Bellvue, Washtington. SAF has over 650,000 members and supporters nationwide, including California. The purposes of SAF include education, research, publishing and legal action focusing on the

1 Constitutional right to privately owned and possess firearms, and the
2 consequences of gun control. SAF brings this action on behalf of itself and its 3 members.

4 7. Defendant KAMALA HARRIS is the Attorney General of the State of 5 California and she is obligated to supervise her agency and comply with all
6 statutory duties under California Law. She is charged with enforcing,
7 interpreting and promulgating regulations regarding California's Assault
8 Weapons Statutes. Furthermore, California Penal Code §§ 13500 et seq.,
9 establishes a commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training that 10 requires the DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, with the Attorney General as an 11 ex officio member of the commission, which is to provide personnel, training 12 and training material to cities and counties to insure an effective and 13 professional level of law enforcement within the State of California.
14 Furthermore, California Attorney General KAMALA HARRIS has concurrent
15 prosecutorial jurisdiction with the state's 58 District Attorneys, and she is 16 bound by a duty to seek substantial justice and avoid the filing of criminal 17 charges in which she knows (or should know) are not supported by probable
18 cause. HARRIS also has an independent duty to disclose information
19 beneficial to the accused and by extension she has a duty to prevent wrongful
20 arrests in the first place when she has the power to do so.

21 8. Defendant CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE is an agency of the 22 State of California, headed by the Attorney General of the State, with a
23 statutory duty to enforce, administer and interpret the law and promulgate
24 regulations regarding weapons identified by the California Legislature as 25 "Assault Weapons." This agency also has the power to issue memorandums, 26 bulletins and opinion letters to law enforcement agencies throughout the 27 State regarding reasonable interpretations of what constitutes an "Assault
28 Weapon" under California Law.

1 9. Defendant SONOMA COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE is a state actor located
2 in a political subdivision of the State of California, Sonoma County.

3 Defendant SONOMA COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE is responsible for setting
4 the policies and procedures of that office, including but not limited to setting
5 policy and conducting training and discipline of peace officers employed by 6 Defendant.

7 10. Defendant Sheriff's Deputy GREG MYERS was employed by the SONOMA
8 COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE for all relevant time periods.

9 11. At this time, Plaintiffs are ignorant of the names any additional individual
10 Defendants who participated in the arrests of Plaintiff BRENDAN
11 RICHARDS. Plaintiffs therefore name these individual officers as DOE
12 Defendants and reserves the right to amend this complaint when their true
13 names are ascertained. Furthermore, if/when additional persons and entities 14 are discovered to have assisted and/or lent support to the wrongful conduct of 15 the Defendants named herein, Plaintiff reserves the right to amend this 16 complaint to add those persons and/or entities as Defendants.

17
18 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

19 12. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28
20 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1343, 2201, 2202 and 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1988.

21 13. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over any state law causes of action
22 arising from the same operative facts under 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

23 14. Venue for this action is proper under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391 and/or the Civil Local 24 Rules for bringing an action in this district.

25
26 CONDITIONS PRECEDENT

27 15. All conditions precedent have been performed, and/or have occurred, and/or 28 have been excused, and/or would be futile.

FACTS – Plaintiff RICHARDS (First Arrest)⁴

2 16. On or about May 20, 2010, Defendant BECKER arrested Plaintiff RICHARDS
3 thus depriving him of his liberty.

4 17. On or about May 20, 2010, Defendant BECKER seized firearms (2 pistols and 5 1 rifle) from Plaintiff RICHARDS, thus depriving him of the means of 6 exercising his Second Amendment rights.

7 18. The arresting agency case number for the incident is: 10-0001930. The docket
8 number for the Sonoma Superior Court Case was: SCR 583167.

9 19. Defendant BECKER investigated a disturbance at a Motel 6 located at 6145
10 Commerce Blvd., which was within his operational jurisdiction.

11 20. While both men were on the sidewalk at the motel, Defendant BECKER
12 questioned Plaintiff RICHARDS about his involvement in the disturbance,
13 and during the conversation, RICHARDS revealed that he had unloaded
14 firearms in the trunk of his vehicle.

15 21. Defendant BECKER indicated that he planned to search the trunk of 16 RICHARDS' vehicle and began to walk toward RICHARDS' car. After 17 BECKER asked a second time if Plaintiffs' firearms were loaded and 18 responding "no", RICHARDS inquired whether OFFICER BECKER needed a 19 warrant to search the trunk of his car.

20 22. Apparently relying on Penal Code § 12031(e), OFFICER BECKER replied that 21 since RICHARDS had admitted that firearms were in the trunk, no warrant
22 was necessary.

23 23. Only after this statement, and in obedience to BECKER'S demand, did
24 RICHARDS turn over the keys to the trunk of his vehicle.

25 24. OFFICER BECKER found two pistols and one rifle, along with other firearm-
26 related equipment in the trunk. None of the firearms were loaded.

27
28 ⁴ These facts are also plead in the related case Richards v. Harris, 3:11-CV-02493 SI.
They are presented here for context.

1 25. OFFICER BECKER inquired about the registration of Plaintiff's firearms and
2 RICHARDS replied that those firearms that required registration were in fact
3 registered to him.

4 26. OFFICER BECKER placed RICHARDS under arrest for a violation of CA
5 Penal Code § 12280(b) – Possession of an unregistered Assault Weapon.

6 27. On the strength of an incident report prepared by OFFICER BECKER, who 7 claimed to be a firearm instructor and an expert witness having previously
8 testified about the identification of Assault Weapons, Plaintiff RICHARDS
9 was charged by the Sonoma County District Attorney with the following
10 crimes by way of felony complaint:

11 a. Two counts of possession of an Assault Weapon under California Penal 12 Code § 12280 et seq.

13 b. Four counts of possession of large capacity magazines.

14 28. Bail was set at $20,000.00. RICHARDS spent 6 days in jail while his family
15 tried to raise the funds for bail. Finally, a $1,400 non-refundable fee was paid
16 to a bondsman and RICHARDS was released on bail.

17 29. On September 9, 2010, prior to a scheduled Preliminary Hearing, the Sonoma
18 County District Attorney's Office dismissed all charges against Plaintiff
19 BRENDAN RICHARDS.

20 30. The dismissal was based on an August 16, 2010, report prepared by Senior 21 Criminalist John Yount of the California Department of Justice Bureau of 22 Forensic Services. Criminalist Yount had found that none of RICHARDS
23 firearms were Assault Weapons as defined by the California Penal Code or 24 any of its regulations.

25 a. One firearm (a semi-automatic pistol) had a properly installed bullet
26 button, thus rendering the firearm incapable of accepting a detachable
27 magazine that could only be removed from the gun by the use of a tool.

28 b. The other firearm (a semi-automatic rifle) had none of the features or

1 characteristics that make a firearm subject to registration under CA's
2 Assault Weapon regime.

3 c. There was never an issue with the third firearm (another semi-
4 automatic pistol that is actually on the California safe handgun list)
5 being classified as an Assault Weapon and it was registered to Plaintiff.

6 31. All of RICHARDS' firearms were semi-automatic firearms. California certifies
7 scores of semi-automatic pistols (including models based on the venerable .45
8 Cal. M1911 of World War II vintage) for retail sale in California.

9 Additionally, several manufacturers offer several models of semi-automatic,
10 center-fire rifles that are not "Assault Weapons" under California law.

11 Examples include:

- 12 a. Ruger Mini-14 Ranch Rifle. (Caliber 5.56mm NATO/.223 Rem.)
- 13 b. Ruger Mini Thirty Rifle. (Caliber 7.62 x 39mm) Ruger 99/44 Deerfield
14 Carbine. (Caliber .44 Remington Magnum)
- 15 c. Remington Model 750 Woodmaster. (Available in several calibers.)
- 16 d. Browning BAR. (Available in several calibers.)
- 17 e. Benelli R1 Rifle. (Available in several calibers.)
- 18 f. Springfield Armory M1A with California legal muzzle-brake and 10-19 round magazines.
- 20 g. World War II Era M1 Garand, available for mail order sales from the 21 United States Government through the Civilian Marksmanship
22 program. <http://www.thecmp.org/Sales/rifles.htm>
- 23 h. World War II Era M1 Carbines, also available for mail order sales from 24 the United States Government through the Civilian Marksmanship
25 program. <http://www.thecmp.org/Sales/rifles.htm>

26 Thus, Plaintiffs herein aver that semi-automatic firearms are common and 27 ordinary weapons, suitable for exercising Second Amendment rights.

28 32. After the government's release of the expert's report, the Prosecution had

1 further discussions with RICHARDS' Counsel, wherein it was pointed out that
2 California law does not criminalize mere possession of large capacity
3 magazines. Upon The People's concession that this is the state of the law in 4 California, all charges against RICHARDS were dismissed.

5 33. RICHARDS, through counsel, made several inquiries over the next several
6 months to the Sonoma County District Attorney about a stipulation of factual
7 innocence under Penal Code § 851.8. These negotiations reached an impasse
8 when the District Attorney insisted on a finding that there was probable cause
9 for the police to arrest RICHARDS as a quid pro quo for their stipulation for a
10 finding of factual innocence. In other words, it can be inferred that the 11 Sonoma County District Attorney still believed, after dismissing the case
12 against RICHARDS, that there is enough ambiguity in the California Assault
13 Weapon statutes and regulations that reasonable minds can differ and that 14 experts are required to interpret the law. Of course this set of circumstances
15 will still result in gun-owners continuing to be arrested, having to post bail,
16 and having to hire attorneys and experts to clear their names.

17 34. BRENDAN RICHARDS made all required court appearances until the matter
18 was dismissed on September 9, 2010.

19 35. BRENDAN RICHARD was thus deprived of his liberty while he was 20 incarcerated pending the posting of bail and then through to September 9, 21 2010, when the case was dismissed and bail was exonerated.

22 36. BRENDAN RICHARDS lost time off from work and incurred travel expenses
23 to make court appearances. He also incurred other losses associated with the 24 criminal case against him.

25 37. BRENDAN RICHARDS was deprived of the possession and use of valuable
26 personal property (two pistols and a rifle), necessary for exercising his Second 27 Amendment "right to keep and bear arms." This deprivation of 28 constitutionally protected property occurred from the date of his arrest until

1 the property was returned to him following the dismissal.

2 38. THE CALGUNS FOUNDATION, INC., paid $11,224.86 for Plaintiff
3 BRENDAN RICHARDS' legal representation in the first criminal matter.

4 39. THE CALGUNS FOUNDATION, INC., has also paid for the defense and 5 expert consultations for many other California residents similarly situated.
6 (e.g., possession of a "bullet button" semi-automatic rifle, arrest and dismissal
7 of charges.)

9 FACTS – Plaintiff RICHARDS (Second Arrest)⁵

10 40. On or about August 14, 2011, the Sonoma County Sheriff's Office acting
11 through Sheriff's Deputy Greg Myers, arrested Plaintiff RICHARDS thus 12 depriving him of his liberty.

13 41. On or about August 14, 2011, the Sonoma County Sheriff's Office acting
14 through Sheriff's Deputy Greg Myers, made contact with RICHARDS, wherein 15 RICHARDS informed the arresting officer that there were firearms located in 16 the trunk of his vehicle. RICHARDS declined to consent to a search of the 17 trunk. The arresting officer then hand-cuffed RICHARDS and proceeded to 18 conduct a warrantless search of the vehicle in apparent reliance on Penal 19 Code § 12031(e). The arresting officer seized a Springfield Armory M1A from 20 the trunk of Plaintiff RICHARDS car.

21 42. The arresting officer apparently believed that the muzzle brake installed on 22 RICHARDS' rifle was a flash suppressor. RICHARDS was charged with a
23 single felony count of violating California Penal Code § 12280(b) – possession
24 of an assault weapon. Bail for RICHARDS was initially set at $100,000.

25 43. A motion to reduce bail was made on or about August 18, 2011, and bail was 26 reduced to $20,000. RICHARDS was released on bail that day after posting a 27

28 ⁵ These are the new facts directly relevant to this new action.

- 1 non-refundable fee to a bail bondman of approximately $2,000.
- 2 44. Prior to the next court appearance, the firearm in question was examined by 3 the California Department of Justice Bureau of Forensic Services. Senior
4 Criminalist John Yount issued a report on or about August 29, 2011, that the 5 firearm was not an Assault Weapon under California law.
- 6 45. The arresting officer either lacked the training to properly distinguish a 7 muzzle brake from a flash suppressor and/or the definition of a flash
8 suppressor is so vague and ambiguous that a well trained peace officer can 9 easily confuse a flash suppressor with a muzzle break.
- 10 46. The California Department of Justice has never promulgated objective
11 standards for identifying flash suppressors. Plaintiffs allege on information
12 and belief that the CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE in fact relies
13 upon manufacturer catalogs and marketing materials, rather than objective
14 scientific tests to determine whether a device is a flash suppressor, flash-
15 hider, muzzle brake and/or recoil compensator.
- 16 47. On or about September 19, 2011, the charges against RICHARDS were 17 dismissed. Although he was cleared by the government's own expert, the 18 Sonoma County D.A. declined to stipulate to a finding of factual innocence.
- 19 48. The weapon in question – Springfield Armory model M1A is a common and 20 ordinary firearm suitable for exercising the “right to keep and bear arms”
21 under the Second Amendment to the United States Constitution.
- 22 49. RICHARDS lost time off of work. He was required to post bail. CALGUNS
23 FOUNDATION, INC., again paid RICHARDS’ criminal defense lawyer in an 24 amount according to proof to be disclosed at a later time.
- 25 50. Following this second arrest on charges of violating California Penal Code §
26 12280(b) – possession of an Assault Weapon – Plaintiff RICHARDS has a
27 reasonable fear, that by exercising a fundamental right protected by the U.S.
28 Constitution, he is realistically threatened by a repetition of wrongful arrests.

1 He further contends that the claim of future injury cannot be written off as 2 mere speculation. RICHARDS also bases his fear of repeated arrests on the 3 information he obtains from the Calguns.net website.

5 FACTS – Relating to Vague and Ambiguous Laws Impacting
6 the Second Amendment

7 51. The CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE is the State agency
8 responsible for the training and education of law enforcement agencies with 9 respect to Assault Weapons under Penal Code §§ 12276.5 and 12289.

10 a. Penal Code § 12276.5(c) states: “The Attorney General shall adopt 11 those rules and regulations that may be necessary or proper to carry 12 out the purposes and intent of this chapter.” [emphasis added]

13 b. Penal Code § 12289(a) states [in part]: “The Department of Justice 14 shall conduct a public education and notification program regarding 15 the registration of assault weapons and the definition of the weapons
16 set forth in Section 12276.1.” [emphasis added]

17 52. California’s definitions of Assault Weapons are set forth at Penal Code §§
18 12276 and 12276.1.

19 53. The California Code of Regulations interpreting the statutory definition of 20 Assault Weapons are found at Title 11, Division 5, Chapters 39 & 40.

21 54. The Orange County Sheriff’s Department has issued a training bulletin about 22 the “bullet button” to prevent wrongful arrests in that county. A true and 23 correct copy is attached as Exhibit A.

24 55. The City of Sacramento has issued a training bulletin about the “bullet
25 button” to prevent wrongful arrests in that jurisdiction. A true and correct
26 copy is attached as Exhibit B.

27 56. The Calguns Foundation Inc., has published a flow-chart to identify weapons
28 that are designated as assault weapons under California law. A true and

1 correct copy is attached as Exhibit C.

2 57. Defendant CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE has promulgated an
3 “Assault Weapons Identification Guide,” an 84-page publication which
4 describes the Assault Weapons regulated in Penal Code sections 12276,
5 12276.1, and 12276.5. In the Guide, the Department acknowledges that a
6 magazine is considered detachable when it “can be removed readily from the 7 firearm with neither disassembly of the firearm action nor use of a tool being
8 required. A bullet or ammunition cartridge is considered a tool.”

9 58. Defendant CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE has declined to issue
10 a statewide bulletin or other directive regarding the “bullet button.”

11 59. Though it would not be unduly burdensome for Defendant CALIFORNIA
12 DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE to issue a bulletin regarding the technology of 13 the “bullet button” and to develop a field test to insure state-wide compliance
14 with the law, the CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE insists:

- 15 a. That this Court does not have the power to compel issuance of such a 16 bulletin, and/or
- 17 b. That the California Assault Weapon Statutes and Regulations are 18 sufficiently clear that the risk of arrest and prosecution should be borne
19 by the citizens of California and/or that the risks of paying damages for 20 false arrest should be borne by local law enforcement agencies.

21 Based on the related litigation, Plaintiffs are prepared to accept Defendants’
22 (DOJ) characterization that the Assault Weapon Statutes and Regulations
23 that they are charged with interpreting, educating the public about and 24 enforcing are not subject to any further clarification by their agency.

25 60. Instead, Plaintiffs will aver that the entire California Assault Weapon
26 Statutes and the Regulations derived therefrom are vague and ambiguous on 27 their face and as applied to RICHARDS’ arrests.

28 61. Furthermore, Plaintiffs allege that Defendant CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT

1 OF JUSTICE has contributed – through its policies, procedures and customs –
2 to a state of general confusion of California’s Assault Weapons laws thus 3 rendering them hopelessly vague and ambiguous as applied; and thus an
4 infringement of the Second Amendment to the United States Constitution.

6 FACTS – Department of Justice Creates Confusion

7 62. The formation of CGF was partially inspired by a desire to counteract a
8 disinformation campaign orchestrated by the California Department of Justice
9 (DOJ) in response to gun owners realizing the implications of the California
10 Supreme Court Decision in Harrot v. County of Kings and the expiration of the 11 Federal Assault Weapons laws.

12 63. In late 2005, various individuals and licensed gun stores began importing into 13 California AR pattern rifles and the receivers for them.

14 64. In response to inquiries about the legality of importing and possessing certain
15 AR and AK pattern rifles and receivers, DOJ began replying in their official
16 letters that while THEY were of the opinion that these rifles were legal, local 17 District Attorneys might disagree and prosecute anyway. True and correct
18 copies of these letter are attached as Exhibit D and they all follow a similar 19 pattern of declaring a certain gun part (receiver) legal to import into 20 California and then warning the recipient that California’s 58 District
21 Attorneys may have a different opinion that could result in prosecution. See:

- 22 i. December 12, 2005, letter from DOJ to Ms. Amanda Star
23 rendering an opinion about the legality of a Stag-15 Lower 24 receiver but warning that local prosecutors may disagree and 25 prosecute accordingly.
- 26 ii. January 18, 2006, letter from DOJ to BST Guns also opining out
27 the legality of firearms, but giving the same warning the 58
28 county prosecutors could potentially prosecute anyway.

- 1 iii. December 28, 2005, letter from DOJ to Matthew Masuda.
- 2 iv. December 27, 2005, letter from DOJ to Christopher Kjellberg.
- 3 v. December 27, 2005, letter from DOJ to Kirk Haley.
- 4 vi. December 28, 2005, letter from DOJ to Mark Mitzel.
- 5 vii. December 28, 2005, letter from DOJ to Jason Paige.

6 65. From February to May 2006, the California Department of Justice issued a
7 series of memorandums that were obtained as part of a California Public
8 Records Request. A true and correct copy of that disclosure is Attached as 9 Exhibit E. The memorandums are remarkable because:

- 10 a. The Department of Justice made changes to the various versions of this 11 memorandum due to Jason Davis, then an attorney for the National 12 Rifle Association, pointing out legal flaws in the various iterations.
- 13 b. In all versions of the memorandum, the Department of Justice directly 14 conflicted the previously published Assault Weapons Information Guide
15 by stating that owners of a firearm with features had to, “permanently
16 alter the firearm so that it cannot accept a detachable magazine.”
17 “Permanent alteration” is not required in the Penal Code, the Assault
18 Weapons Information Guide, or the then existing California Code of 19 Regulations 11 C.C.R. 5469.

20 66. On or about May 10, 2006, DOJ counsel Alison Merrilees informed a member
21 of the public that the DOJ wished to create a test case, “[w]e are eagerly
22 awaiting a test case on this, because we think we’ll win.” A true and correct
23 copy of the email that was obtained as part of a Public Records Act request is 24 attached as Exhibit F.

25 67. In May 2006, DOJ issued an internal memo to phone staff that stated, “It is 26 DOJ’s opinion that under current law, a semiautomatic centerfire rifle that is 27 modified to be temporarily incapable of accepting a detachable magazine, but 28 can be restored to accommodate a detachable magazines, is an assault

1 weapons if it has any of the features listed in §12276.1(a)(1),” and “Individuals
2 who alter a firearm designed and intended to accept a detachable magazine in 3 an attempt to make it incapable of accepting a detachable magazine do so at 4 their legal peril,” stating further, “[w]hether or not such a firearm remains
5 capable of accepting a detachable magazine is a question for law enforcement
6 agencies, district attorneys, and ultimately juries of twelve persons, not the 7 California Department of Justice.” A copy of this memorandum was obtained
8 as part of a Public Records Act Request and is attached as Exhibit G.

9 68. On or about June 6, 2006, DOJ issued a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking. The 10 proposed amendment would have “define[d] a sixth term, “capacity to accept a 11 detachable magazine”, as meaning “capable of accommodating a detachable 12 magazine, but shall not be construed to include a firearm that has been 13 permanently altered so that it cannot accommodate a detachable magazine.”
14 A true and correct copy of the notice is attached as Exhibit H.

15 69. On or about November 1, 2006, DOJ issued a “Text of Modified Regulations”
16 The updated text attempted to define “detachable magazine” as “currently 17 able to receive a detachable magazine or readily modifiable to receive a 18 detachable magazine” and had other “permanency” requirements. A true and 19 correct copy of the notice is attached as Exhibit I.

20 70. Plaintiff CGF alleges on information and belief, DOJ did not submit the 21 Modified Regulations to the Office of Administrative Law (“OAL”) and thus 22 the 2006 Rulemaking did not take effect.

23 71. On or about July 11, 2007, CGF (through Gene Hoffman, the Chairman of 24 CGF) petitioned the OAL to have them find that the continued publication of 25 the “Important Notice” Memorandum after the 2006 Rulemaking that was not 26 submitted to OAL was an “Underground Regulation.” See Exhibit J.

27 72. On or about September 11, 2007, OAL accepted Hoffman’s petition. See 28 Exhibit K.

1 73. On or about September 21, 2007, OAL suspended its review as DOJ issued a
2 certification on or about September 20, 2007, that stated, “[DOJ] reserves the 3 right to interpret the law in any case-specific adjudication, as authorized in 4 Tidewater Marine Western, Inc. v. Bradshaw (1996) 14 Cal.4th 557,572.” A
5 true and correct copy of the letter from the OAL along with DOJ’s certification
6 is attached as Exhibit L.

7 74. The reservation in the certification of September 20, 2007, leads to 8 uncertainty over whether the DOJ would take the position that permanence
9 was required for modifications to a firearm so that the firearm would not have 10 “the capacity to accept a detachable magazine.”

11 75. On or about September 29, 2008, DOJ responded to a letter inquiry about the 12 legality of selling a semiautomatic center fire rifle with an alternate version of 13 the “bullet button” colloquially known as the Prince-50 kit. DOJ stated:

14 “Since there are no statutes, case law, or regulations concerning 15 whether a rifle that is loaded with a fixed, removeable magazine can 16 also be considered to have the ‘capacity to accept a detachable
17 magazine,’ we are unable to declare rifles configured with the ‘Prince 50
18 Kit’ or ‘bullet button’ to be legal or illegal.”

18 See Exhibit M, with special attention to Attachment A, which is the letter
19 dated September 29, 2008.

20 76. On or about November 3, 2008, DOJ replied to Kern County DA Edward 21 Jagels:

22 “Since there are no statutes, case law, or regulations concerning
23 whether a rifle that is loaded with a fixed, removeable magazine
24 can also be considered to have the ‘capacity to accept a
25 detachable magazine,’ we are unable to declare rifles configured
26 with the ‘Prince 50 Kit’ or ‘bullet button’ to be legal or illegal.”

26 A true and correct copy of this letter is attached as Exhibit N. The letter is 27 hard to read due to multiple copies. If discovery proceeds in this matter,
28 Plaintiff would expect to obtain a cleaner copy.

1 77. Not only is the CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE claiming it has
 2 no duty to issue a clarifying bulletin to the State's District Attorneys and Law
 3 Enforcement Community, on this issue; they have apparently engaged in a 4 pattern of disinformation and confusion on the issue of whether a rifle fitted
 5 with a device that makes it incapable of accepting a detachable magazine is 6 legal to own in California. It could be argued that CALIFORNIA
 7 DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE's firearms division has created such a state of 8 confusion that the entire statutory and regulatory scheme for defining 9 California Assault Weapons is hopelessly, and unconstitutionally vague and 10 ambiguous.

11
 12 FACTS – Calguns Foundation, Inc., Ongoing Efforts to 13 Assist Law Abiding Gun Owners

- 14 78. The CALGUNS FOUNDATION, INC., has defended many incidents of law
 15 abiding gun owners and retailers whose firearms were either seized, the 16 individual was arrested and/or charged with violating Assault Weapons
 17 Control Act.
- 18 a. In approximately April 2007, Matthew Corwin was arrested and 19 charged with multiple violations of the AWCA. See People v. Matthew 20 Corwin, Case No. GA069547, Los Angeles Superior Court.
- 21 b. In June 2008, John Contos was arrested and charged in Solano County
 22 with a violation of Penal Code § 12280 - possession/manufacturing of 23 Assault Weapons based on the allegation that his rifle had an illegal
 24 thumb-hole stock. The case number was VCR198514-VF. CGF funded
 25 the defense of Mr. Contos. The case was dismissed and the D.A.
 26 stipulated to a finding of factual innocence.
- 27 c. In November 2008, John Crivello had a semiautomatic centerfire rifle
 28 with a "bullet button" magazine release seized from his home in Santa

1 Cruz, California by the Santa Cruz Police Department. Counsel
2 provided by CGF educated the Santa Cruz District Attorney's office.
3 Counsel to CGF was advised that DOJ stated that it was unclear
4 whether the bullet button was legal but that the District Attorney
5 should file anyway. The District Attorney (ADA Dave Genochio and/or 6 Charlie Baum) dropped charges and the firearm was returned to Mr.
7 Crivello. CGF spent $645.00 defending Mr. Crivello.

8 d. On or about November 3, 2009, Deputy J. Finley of Orange County
9 Sheriff's Department seized a "bullet button" equipped Stag Arms AR-
10 15 style firearm from Stan Sanders. CGF counsel was engaged to 11 explain the legality of the firearm to the Orange County Sheriff's 12 Department and the firearm was subsequently returned to Mr.
13 Sanders. The Orange County Training Bulletin was issued partially in 14 response to this incident. CGF spent $650.00 defending Mr. Sanders.

15 e. On or about March 30, 2010, Robert Wolf was arrested by the Riverside
16 County Sheriff's Department for possession of a semiautomatic
17 centerfire rifle with a "Prince 50 Kit." CGF counsel intervened and had 18 the case dismissed on or about November 11, 2010. CGF spent
19 $5,975.00 defending Mr. Wolf.

20 f. Confusion about the legality of rifles with "bullet buttons" continues.
21 On March 29, 2011, the Cotati Police Department seized a rifle with a 22 bullet button from Max Horowitz. CGF counsel has been retained to 23 defend Mr. Horowitz who was arraigned on August 8, 2011, in Sonoma
24 County. The case is still pending.

25 g. Please also see the related actions including but not limited to Plaintiff
26 RICHARDS' multiple arrests.

27 79. Plaintiffs allege on information and belief that there may be other innocent
28 gun owners, who without the resources of THE CALGUNS FOUNDATION,

1 INC., and/or THE SECOND AMENDMENT FOUNDATION, were charged
2 under these vague and ambiguous statutes/regulations and plead guilty (or no
3 contest) to lesser charges to avoid a felony conviction.

5 FACTS – Semi-Automatic, Center-Fire Rifles and Handguns
6 are “Arms” Protected by the Second Amendment.

7 80. Plaintiffs herein allege that semi-automatic center-fire rifles and handguns
8 with detachable magazines and any number of additional features (e.g., pistol 9 grips, collapsible stocks, flash suppressors, etc...) are “arms” protected by the 10 Second Amendment to the United States Constitution. Furthermore, to the 11 extent that California seeks to regulate the manufacturing, acquisition and 12 possession of semi-automatic, center-fire rifles with detachable magazines, it
13 must define them in a way that is not vague and ambiguous.

14 81. Even assuming arguendo that Plaintiffs are wrong and some semi-automatic,
15 center-fire rifles and handguns with detachable magazines are not protected
16 by the Second Amendment – California’s Assault Weapon laws are still 17 unconstitutional because innocent gun owners continue to be arrested for 18 mere possession of the sub-class of these weapons that are legal and therefore 19 absolutely protected by the Second Amendment.

20 82. Plaintiff herein allege that the state of confusion caused by the current vague
21 and ambiguous statutes/regulations continues to result in the wrongful arrests 22 of innocent gun-owners while they are exercising a fundamental “right to keep 23 and bear” lawful firearms. These wrongful arrests and the chilling of 24 fundamental rights violates the Second Amendment to the United States
25 Constitution as that right is incorporated against state action through the 26 Fourteenth Amendment.

84. California’s Assault Weapon Statutes and Regulations are unconstitutionally vague and ambiguous and have resulted in the wrongful arrest, detention and prosecution of law-abiding citizens exercising their Second Amendment right to ‘keep and bear arms’ that are in common use for lawful purposes.

85. California’s Assault Weapon Statutes and Regulations are unconstitutionally vague and result in the wrongful confiscation of common and ordinary firearms, that are protected by the Second Amendment, from their law-abiding owners.

86. Paragraphs 1 through 82 are incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

87. California Penal Code § 12031(e) is unconstitutional on its face, and as applied in this case. Mere possession of a firearm, (i.e., exercising a fundamental right) when otherwise lawful, cannot support a finding of probable cause to believe a crime has been committed, such that the Fourth Amendment’s warrant requirement can be legislatively disregarded.

88. Plaintiff BRENDAN RICHARDS requests declaratory and/or prospective injunctive relief under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 that Penal Code § 12031(e) – on its face and as applied – is a violation of his constitutional right to be free from unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment to the United States

1 Constitution, while he is exercising his Second Amendment rights to “keep
2 and bear” lawful firearms.

3 89. Plaintiffs THE CALGUNS FOUNDATION, INC., and THE SECOND
4 AMENDMENT FOUNDATION, INC., also requests declaratory and/or
5 prospective injunctive relief under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 that Penal Code §
6 12031(e) is unconstitutional on its face. It is tantamount to a legislatively
7 issued general warrant applicable only against gun owners transporting
8 firearm on public roads and highways. General warrants were a particular 9 evil that the Fourth Amendment was adopted to prevent.

19 DEPUTY GREG MYERS that will require amendments to their policies and 20 training to address:

- 21 a. Identification of Assault Weapons under California law.
- 22 b. Compliance with the Fourth Amendments.

23 92. Said injunctive relief will insure uniform and just application the Fourth
24 Amendment and of California’s Weapons Control Laws. Uniform and just

15 WHEREFORE, the Plaintiffs requests that this Court:

ASSAULT WEAPONS

This training bulletin is intended to provide some helpful information when encountering firearms (rifles, pistols and shotguns) in the field and whether they are legal or not. This training bulletin will also help eliminate confusion as to what actually makes a rifle, pistol or shotgun legal or illegal to possess and what makes them an "assault weapon."

Whenever you take lawful possession of a firearm in the field, you should always run the firearm's serial number through the Automated Firearms System (AFS) to see if that firearm is legally registered or not. Here is an example of what a registered rifle's teletype print out will look like.

Assault Weapons

The term "assault weapon" means any designated semiautomatic firearms as defined by Penal Code section 12276. Assault weapons are divided into three categories. These are:

- Category 1 Firearms specifically listed in Penal Code section 12276 subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) (Roberti-Roos Assault Weapons Control Act of 1989).
- Category 2 Additional firearms specifically listed by make and model expanding on the AR and AK "series" firearms in Penal Code section 12276 subdivisions (e) and (f) (Kasler v. Lockyer (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 472, AK and AR-15 series weapons).
- Category 3 Firearms that are defined by generic characteristic features of the firearm in Penal Code section 12276.1 (Senate Bill 23 or "SB 23 features").

TRAINING BULLETIN

ORANGE COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT

Under Category 3, PC 12276.1 (a) Notwithstanding Penal Code section 12276, "assault weapon" shall also mean the following:

Rifles

- (1) A semiautomatic, centerfire rifle that has the capacity to accept a detachable magazine and any one of the following:
 - (A) A pistol grip that protrudes conspicuously beneath the action of the weapon.
 - (B) A thumbhole stock.
 - (C) A folding or telescoping stock.
 - (D) A grenade launcher or flare launcher.
 - (E) A flash suppressor.
 - (F) A forward pistol grip.
- (2) A semiautomatic, centerfire rifle that has a fixed magazine with the capacity to accept more than 10 rounds.
- (3) A semiautomatic, centerfire rifle that has an overall length of less than 30 inches.

Notes

- Bayonets and bayonet lugs are not considered characteristics of assault weapons under California law.
- There has been an increase of AR-15 and AK-47 type firearms sold in California that at first glance appear to be an assault weapon, but these firearms have a device installed called a "Bullet Button". This device prevents the shooter from depressing the magazine release button with a finger. The magazine can quickly be released by using a "tool", which can be the tip of a bullet or some other tool to depress the enclosed magazine release button. Once a bullet button is installed and there is an attached magazine capable of holding only 10 rounds, the firearm no longer has a "detachable magazine" as required for a Category 3 type of assault weapon as per Penal Code Section 12276.1(a)(1). This is an example of a bullet button.

ORANGE COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT

- Companies have become creative and have a "10/30 round magazine". These magazines look just like a 30 round magazine, but have been permanently altered to only hold 10 rounds. If you are basing an assault weapon charge on the fact that a rifle has a fixed magazine with the capacity to accept more than 10 rounds, make sure you can in fact load more than 10 rounds into the magazine, Penal Code 12276.1(a)(2). Note in your report that you were able to load more than 10 rounds into the magazine.

Pistols

- (4) A semiautomatic pistol that has the capacity to accept a detachable magazine and one of the following:
 - (A) A threaded barrel, capable of accepting a flash suppressor, forward handgrip, or silencer.
 - (B) A second handgrip.
 - (C) A shroud that is attached to, or partially or completely encircles, the barrel that allows the bearer to fire the weapon without burning his or her hand, except a slide that encloses the barrel.
 - (D) The capacity to accept a detachable magazine at some location outside of the pistol grip.
- (5) A semiautomatic pistol with a fixed magazine that has the capacity to accept more than 10 rounds.

Shotguns

- (6) A semiautomatic shotgun that has both of the following:
 - (A) A folding or telescoping stock.
 - (B) A pistol grip that protrudes conspicuously beneath the action of the weapon, thumbhole stock, or vertical handgrip.
- (7) A semiautomatic shotgun that has the ability to accept a detachable magazine.
- (8) Any shotgun with a revolving cylinder.

.50 caliber BMG (Browning Machinegun) Semi-automatic and Single-shot Rifles

It is a felony for any person to manufacture, distribute, transport, import into California, or keep or offer for sale, or give or lend, an assault weapon or .50 BMG rifle (Penal Code § 12280).

Any person who lawfully possesses an assault weapon or .50 BMG rifle must have registered it as such with the Department of Justice (Penal Code § 12285).

If a firearm or receiver has neither a 12276.1- specified combination of characteristic features, nor is listed by make and model in PC 12276/11 CCR § 979.10 or 11 CCR § 979.11, it is not an assault weapon.

TRAINING BULLETIN

ORANGE COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT

Do not just book the firearm into Property for Safekeeping, especially if you are unsure of its assault weapon characteristics. Book the weapon as Evidence. Booking the weapon as Evidence will allow for follow-up investigation, if needed. When booking a firearm into property, you shall obtain a FCN from Teletype for each firearm booked.

Assault Weapon Cases

There has been an increase over the last two years of AR-15 & AK-47 type firearms sold in CA that at first glance appear to be an assault weapon. These firearms have a device installed called a "Bullet Button". The device prevents the shooter from depressing the magazine release button with a finger. However, the magazine can quickly be released by using the tip of a bullet or other tool to depress the enclosed magazine release button.

Once a bullet button device is installed the firearm no longer has a "detachable magazine" as required in Penal Code Section 12276.1(a)(1) and as defined in the California Code of Regulations. This allows someone to legally possess a rifle built on an off-list (not listed in PC 12276) lower receiver with a pistol grip, folding/telescoping stock, flash suppressor or a forward pistol grip because the firearm has a "fixed magazine".

Detective Halstead
Sacramento Police Department
(916) 433-0671

There are several ways to classify a firearm as an Assault Weapon. The two most common ways to determine if a firearm is an assault weapon is to refer to Penal Code Sections 12276 & 12276.1.

Penal Code Section 12276 contains a list of all the category 1 assault weapons. Any firearm named on the list in Penal Code Section 12276 is considered an assault weapon and if not registered as an assault weapon with DOJ is a violation of Penal Code Section 12280.

Penal Code Section 12276.1 is used to classify a firearm based on its generic characteristics. The make and model have no bearing on whether a firearm is an assault weapon under this section. Penal Code Section 12276.1(a) provides three separate definitions that officers can refer to when attempting to determine if a rifle is an assault weapon. A rifle only has to meet one of the following three definitions to be an assault weapon. Penal Code Section 12276.1(a) defines an assault rifle as anyone of the following:

- (1) A semiautomatic, centerfire rifle that has the capacity to accept a detachable magazine and any one of the following:
 - a) A pistol grip that protrudes conspicuously beneath the action of the weapon.
 - b) A thumbhole stock.
 - c) A folding or telescoping stock.
 - d) A grenade or flare launcher.
 - e) A flash suppressor.
 - f) A forward pistol grip.

OR

- (2) A semiautomatic, centerfire rifle that has a fixed magazine with the capacity to accept more than ten rounds.

OR

- (3) A semiautomatic, centerfire rifle that has an overall length of less than 30 inches.

A rifle equipped with a "Bullet Button" can't fall under Penal Code Section 12276.1(a)(1) because it no longer has a detachable magazine. However, Penal Code Section 12276.1(a)(2) does apply to a rifle equipped with a "Bullet Button" if it has a magazine installed that can hold more than 10 rounds.

Companies that manufacture magazines have become creative in working with California's Assault Weapon laws. They have created a magazine called a "10/30 round magazine". These magazines look just like a 30 round magazine. However, they have been permanently altered to only hold 10 rounds. Some of these magazines are marked as 10 round magazines, but many are not. If you are basing an assault weapon charge on the fact that a rifle has a fixed magazine with the capacity to hold more than 10 rounds make sure you can load more than 10 rounds into the magazine. Note in your report that you were able to load more than 10 rounds into the magazine.

At first glance the rifle below appears to be an assault rifle. However, it is a completely legal firearm in California. The rifle is an off-list, semiautomatic, centerfire rifle with a telescoping stock, pistol grip, a fixed 10 round magazine and overall length of 31 inches.

Re: Importation of Stag-15 Lower Receiver into California

Dear Ms. Sitar:

I am writing in response to your inquiry about whether it is legal to send a Stag-15 lower receiver to California.

The Stag-15 is not listed as a Category One assault rifle in California Penal Code 12276. Although technically the receiver is legal to purchase and possess in California at this time (assuming it does not have the characteristics listed in Penal Code section 12276.1(a)(1), (a)(2) or (a)(3)), you should be aware that the Stag-15 lower receiver is virtually identical to rifles that are now listed as assault weapons by the Department. It will be added shortly to the DOJ Assault Weapons Identification Guide and will soon be classified as an assault weapon.

Also, please realize that this opinion is not conclusive about the legality of the firearm. A local prosecutor in one of California's 58 counties could decide to prosecute you, or the gun dealer who orders the Stag-15 for illegal importation of an assault weapon, regardless of this letter.

I hope this information was helpful. Please feel free to write to me again if you have any additional questions.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Robello:

I am writing in response to your inquiry about whether it is legal to send the unlisted AR-15 lower receivers listed above, into California.

The receivers about which you inquired are not listed as Category One assault rifles in California Penal Code 12276, and are not yet named as Category Two assault rifles. Although technically the receivers are legal to purchase and possess in California at this time (assuming they do not have the characteristics listed in Penal Code section 12276.1(a)(1), (a)(2) or (a)(3)), you should be aware that they are virtually identical to assault weapons that are now illegal in California. You should also be aware that we may add them soon to the DOJ Assault Weapons Identification Guide. Therefore, the lower receivers may soon be classified as assault weapons.

Also, please realize that this opinion is not conclusive about the legality of the receivers. A local prosecutor in one of California's 58 counties could decide to prosecute you for illegal importation of assault weapons, regardless of this letter.

I hope this information was helpful. Please feel free to write to me again if you have any additional questions.

Dear Mr. Haley:

I am writing in response to your letter dated December 5, 2005, inquiring about the L.A.R. Manufacturing Inc. Grizzly .223 CAL receiver. You asked about the legality of purchasing and possessing a L.A.R. Manufacturing Inc. Grizzly .223 CAL receiver in California. We are not familiar with that particular make and model of firearm, so cannot give a definitive opinion about whether or not it is legal in California. We would be happy to examine the firearm itself, or a photo thereof, in order to render an opinion.

You should be aware, however, that the receiver may be illegal if it has any of the characteristics listed in Penal Code 12276.1. Also, a local prosecutor in one of California's 58 counties could decide to prosecute you for possession of an assault weapon, regardless of our opinion about the legality of the firearm.

Re: Public Records Act Request

Dear Mr. Hoffman:

I am writing in response to your letter dated May 11, 2006 requesting "copies of records relating to the various iterations of the memoranda or "Important Notices" regarding sales or possession of Unnamed AR-15/AK 47 "Series" Firearms." You requested "copies of all of the revisions of this memo/notice since December 1, 2005." You also requested "any meeting notices, emails, internal memoranda or other written or electronic records directly relating to the analysis in the various versions of these notices."

According to our records, we have posted three notices on our website regarding series-style assault weapons since December 1, 2005. The first notice was posted on February 6, 2006. The February 6, 2006 contained two typographical errors regarding the year of the Harrott decision and an error regarding the closing date for registration of SB 23 assault weapons. I have enclosed a copy of the February 6, 2006 notice, which is labeled as "Attachment A." That document was edited to correct the errors and to add the DOJ seal on February 7, 2006. I have enclosed a copy of the February 7, 2006 notice, which is labeled as "Attachment B."

On May 1, 2006, we removed the February 7, 2006 notice from the Firearms Division website. On May 9, 2006, we posted a revised notice regarding series-style weapons that was prepared in consultation with attorneys within the Department. It represents the Department's final policy regarding series-style weapons that have not been identified as assault weapons by the Department. I have enclosed a copy of the May 9th notice, which is labeled as "Attachment C."

None of the other documents that you requested are subject to public disclosure because they are privileged under the Evidence Code. (California Government Code §6245(k)). Therefore, we will not comply with the portion of your Public Records Act request in which you request those documents.

California Department of Justice Information Regarding the Sale/Possession of Newly Identified AR-15/AK 47 "Series" Firearms

The Department of Justice (hereafter "the Department") has received numerous contacts from the public and firearms industry personnel regarding the legality of various AR-15/AK 47 "series" style firearms that have not yet been identified as "series" assault weapons by the Department. The Department is also aware of the recent high volume of sales of these firearms.

The Department has the statutory authority to identify "series" assault weapons. In 2000, the California Supreme Court upheld that authority in Kasler v. Lockyer (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 472. The Department updated the list of "series" weapons in 2000 (as "Category 2" assault weapons), shortly after the Kasler decision.

The California Supreme Court reiterated in 2003 that "the Attorney General has the authority to determine that certain semiautomatic firearms are assault weapons by simply identifying them as such in the list published by the Attorney General in the California Code of Regulations...two types of firearms defined in Penal Code (PC) section 12276 by the use of the term series, namely the AK-47 series and the Colt AR-15 series." Harrott v. County of Kings (2003) 25 Cal. 4th 1138, 1155.

Accordingly, the Department is currently in the process of identifying those firearms in the state that are variations, with minor differences, of AR-15/AK 47 "series" weapons. Once this process is complete, the Department will promulgate a list and file it with the Secretary of State's office. Concurrently, the Department will begin updating the Assault Weapon Identification Guide which is currently available via the Department's website at <http://ag.ca.gov/firearms/forms/index.html>. Once the list of newly identified "series" weapons is filed with the Secretary of State, citizens who possess those weapons will have 90 days to register them with the Department of Justice.

Newly identified "series" weapons cannot legally have the features listed

2/2006

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Page Two

The registration period for assault weapons with those characteristics (Category 3 assault weapons) ended on December 31, 2000. Because non-"series" assault weapons with PC section 12276.1 features may not be offered for sale, manufactured, imported, or possessed in California, it follows that newly registered "series" weapons may not have the features listed in PC section 12276.1, either.

The prohibition on the features listed in PC section 12276.1 is consistent with current DOJ policy that named "series" weapons are illegal, unless registered, regardless of whether they have the PC section 12276.1 features. It is also consistent with the intent of the California state legislature to ban assault weapons, expressed in 1991 when PC section 12276(f) was enacted.

This section is declaratory of existing law, as amended, and a clarification of the law and the Legislature's intent which bans the weapons enumerated in this section, the weapons included in Section 12276.5, and any other models which are only minor variations of those weapons with minor differences, regardless of the manufacturer [emphasis added].

It should be noted that individuals who timely registered "Category 1" and "Category 2" assault weapons were allowed to keep or add the PC section 12276.1 features on their firearms. Those generic features were not illegal during the registration period for Category 1 assault weapons. In August of 2000, when the Department identified the Category 2 "series" weapons, it was legal to register weapons with those characteristics as Category 3 assault weapons. Firearms with those features could no longer be registered as of January 1, 2001. Therefore, newly identified "series" (Category 4) weapons likewise cannot have those features.

Registrants of newly identified series weapons cannot legally add PC section 12276.1 features to those firearms. The Department intends to enforce this restriction through the assault weapon registration process. Registration acknowledgment letters will include an admonition to registrants that adding prohibited features to newly registered assault weapons will invalidate the registration. The basis for valid registration will rest solely on the fact that the Department identifies the receivers for these firearms as variations, with minor differences, of already controlled AR-15/AK 47 "series" weapons. All additional features of the newly identified "series" weapons must conform with current California law.

Firearm manufacturers, wholesalers and dealers who misinform the public about the ability to legally add prohibited features to these newly listed firearms risk criminal prosecution. They could also face civil penalties of up to $2,500 per violation under the state's Unfair Practices Act (California Business & Professions Code section 17000 et seq.).

This information will be distributed to criminal justice agencies throughout the state, as well as to firearm dealers listed on the Department's Centralized List, via the formal Information Bulletin process.

in PC section 12276.1 when they are registered. Those features cannot legally be added after the firearms are registered as assault weapons. The PC section 12276.1 features have been banned since January 1, 2000, when Senate Bill 23 went into effect. The public was notified of the prohibition on the specified features many years ago.

The Department has the statutory authority to identify "series" assault weapons. In 2000, the California Supreme Court upheld that authority in Kasler v. Lockyer (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 472. The Department updated the list of "series" weapons in 2000 (as "Category 2" assault weapons), shortly after the Kasler decision.

The California Supreme Court reiterated in 2001 that "the Attorney General has the authority to determine that certain semiautomatic firearms are assault weapons by simply identifying them as such in the list published by the Attorney General in the California Code of Regulations...two types of firearms defined in Penal Code (PC) section 12276 by the use of the term series, namely the AK-47 series and the Colt AR-15 series." Harrott v. County of Kings (2001) 25 Cal. 4th 1138, 1155.

Accordingly, the Department is currently in the process of identifying those firearms in the state that are variations, with minor differences, of AR-15/AK 47 "series" weapons. Once this process is complete, the Department will promulgate a list and file it with the Secretary of State's office. Concurrently, the Department will begin updating the Assault Weapon Identification Guide which is currently available via the Department's website at <http://ag.ca.gov/firearms/forms/index.html>. Once the list of newly identified "series" weapons is filed with the Secretary of State, citizens who possess those weapons will have 90 days to register them with the Department of Justice.

Newly identified "series" weapons cannot legally have the features listed in PC section 12276.1 when they are registered. Those features cannot legally be added after the firearms are registered as assault weapons. The PC section 12276.1 features have been banned since January 1, 2000, when Senate Bill 23 went into effect. The public was notified of the prohibition on the specified features many years ago.

The registration period for assault weapons with those characteristics (Category 3 assault weapons) ended on December 31, 2000. Because non-series assault weapons with PC section 12276.1 features may not be offered for sale, manufactured, imported, or possessed in California, it follows that newly registered series weapons may not have the features listed in PC section 12276.1, either.

The prohibition on the features listed in PC section 12276.1 is consistent with current DOJ policy that named series weapons are illegal, unless registered, regardless of whether they have the PC section 12276.1 features. It is also consistent with the intent of the California state legislature to ban assault weapons, expressed in 1991 when PC section 12276(f) was enacted.

This section is declaratory of existing law, as amended, and a clarification of the law and the Legislature's intent which bans the weapons enumerated in this section, the weapons included in Section 12276.5, and any other models which are only minor variations of those weapons with minor differences, regardless of the manufacturer [emphasis added].

It should be noted that individuals who timely registered "Category 1" and "Category 2" assault weapons were allowed to keep or add the PC section 12276.1 features on their firearms. Those generic features were not illegal during the registration period for Category 1 assault weapons. In August of 2000, when the Department identified the Category 2 series weapons, it was legal to register weapons with those characteristics as Category 3 assault weapons. Firearms with those features could no longer be registered as of January 1, 2001. Therefore, newly identified series (Category 4) weapons likewise cannot have those features.

Registrants of newly identified series weapons cannot legally add PC section 12276.1 features to those firearms. The Department intends to enforce this restriction through the assault weapon registration process. Registration acknowledgment letters will include an admonition to registrants that adding prohibited features to newly registered assault weapons will invalidate the registration. The basis for valid registration will rest solely on the fact that the Department identifies the receivers for these firearms as variations, with minor differences, of already controlled AR-15/AK 47 series weapons. All additional features of the newly identified series weapons must conform with current California law.

Firearm manufacturers, wholesalers and dealers who misinform the public about the ability to legally add prohibited features to these newly listed firearms risk criminal prosecution. They could also face civil penalties of up to $2,500 per violation under the state's Unfair Practices Act (California Business & Professions Code section 17000 et seq.).

This information will be distributed to criminal justice agencies throughout the state, as well as to firearm dealers listed on the Department's Centralized List, via the formal Information Bulletin process.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

California Department of Justice Information Regarding the Sale/Possession of Unnamed AR- 15/AK 47 "Series" Firearms

The Department of Justice (hereafter "the Department") has received numerous inquiries from the public and firearms industry personnel about the legality of various AR-15/AK 47 "series" style firearms that have not been named by the Department as "series" assault weapons. The Department believes that the public and law enforcement are best served by reference to the generic definition of assault weapons set forth in SB 23, rather than reliance upon a scheme of identifying assault weapons by name. Therefore, the Department will not update the list of "series" assault weapons.

SB 23 has banned the possession, sale and manufacture of firearms with the characteristics of assault weapons as defined in California Penal Code §12276.1 since January 1, 2000. A semiautomatic centerfire rifle with the capacity to accept a detachable magazine and any of the generic features listed in Penal Code §12276.1(a)(1) is contraband unless it was registered prior to January 1, 2001. It is illegal to manufacture, cause to be manufactured, distribute, transport, import, keep for sale, offer or expose for sale, give or lend such a weapon, except as permitted by law.

Law enforcement officials, firearm dealers and the public should be aware that semiautomatic centerfire rifles that are modified to be temporarily incapable of accepting detachable magazines, but can be restored to accommodate detachable magazines, are assault weapons if they have any of the features listed in §12276.1(a)(1). The Department intends to exercise its power pursuant to Penal Code section 12276.5(i) to adopt regulations as "necessary or proper to carry out the purposes and intent" of California law to ban assault weapons in the state.

Individuals who own firearms that meet the generic definition of assault weapons banned by SB 23 must do one of the following in order to comply with existing law: remove the features, sell the firearm (without the features), or permanently alter the firearm so that it cannot accept a detachable magazine.

It remains illegal to possess assault weapons banned by name (either in statute or regulation), unless those assault weapons are registered and possessed in accordance with state law. The time limits for registration, which depend on the make and model of the assault weapon, are set forth in Penal Code §12285.

Luis,

Hi Luis,

We don't think there is any "taking" issue that would require compensation/registration. We believe that our interpretation of "capacity to accept" is consistent with current law and regulations. We have never given our blessing to any of the temporary fixes that these guys now ASSUME are legal. We are eagerly awaiting a test case on this, because we think we'll win.

The gun guys bragged repeatedly that they could restore their "California legal AR's" to fully functional AW's in a matter of seconds. I don't think a judge or jury would find that such a configuration complies with the letter or the intent of the law.

A few of them clearly are on our side, but I expect them to get worn down and stop speaking up. That does not bother me. They are never going to be happy as long as we say they can't have what they want : AW's that are legal. Our current position is pretty easy to defend. I'm not worried.

Hi Alison:

Oh my, I just read through part of the CalGuns thread. The gun guys are upset aren't they. Sounds like you did good.

They may have a point in the question of how a revised definition of "capacity to accept a detachable magazine" impacts weapons that were formerly approved by DOJ. We would not want anything that opens up a new registration process if that process enables them to add features prohibited by SB 23. I'm not quite sure how that all works out.

Friday may work better for all concerned. Ellyne is going to try to set up a call.

In advance of that, did LCAV prepare a memo for the Attorney General on the AW receivers and detachable magazine issues? I'd appreciate reading anything you can share with me in advance of our call.

Thank you,

Alison:

I am sending this e-mail by way of introduction. I have been receiving information from your office by way of Luis Tolley and Ellyne Bell. I am a Senior Attorney with the Brady Center, and have been here almost ten years. During my tenure, I have been involved extensively with the assault weapons issue in California. For example, I was involved in the Kasler v. Lungren, Harrott v. County of Kings, and People v. Dingman cases, the 101 California Street lawsuit, and other issues. I also represented the 12 city and county plaintiffs in the municipal gun suit.

You should be aware of some of what is being said on various gun-nut message boards about DOJ's plans. Here is a sample of one such discussion. <http://www.calguns.net/calgunforum/showthread.php?t=33533>

My direct contact information is below. I understand Ellyne is trying to set up a conference call for Friday of this week (I'm traveling tomorrow and Thursday). I look forward to speaking with you on the phone and offering my expertise to the Attorney General.

How to Respond to Telephone and Email Inquiries from the Public About 5/10/06 Important Notice re Unlisted AR/AK Series Firearms:

- Current law defines a semiautomatic centerfire rifle with the capacity to accept a detachable magazine and any of the generic features listed in Penal Code §12276.1(a)(1) as an assault weapon.
- Such a firearm is contraband unless it was registered in a timely fashion pursuant to Penal Code §12285.
- It is DOJ's opinion that under current law, a semiautomatic centerfire rifle that is modified to be temporarily incapable of accepting a detachable magazine, but can be restored to accommodate a detachable magazines, is an assault weapons if it has any of the features listed in §12276.1(a)(1).
- Regulations will be adopted to clarify current law. The regulations will not change DOJ's opinion about firearms that DOJ now considers to be legal.
- The public will have an opportunity to comment on our proposed regulations, as permitted under the California Administrative Procedures Act.
- Individuals who alter a firearm designed and intended to accept a detachable magazine in an attempt to make it incapable of accepting a detachable magazine do so at their legal peril.
- Whether or not such a firearm remains capable of accepting a detachable magazine is a question for law enforcement agencies, district attorneys, and ultimately juries of twelve persons, not the California Department of Justice.
- We cannot anticipate how any or all of the above entities will view the conversion of a firearm.
- DOJ has approved several models of commercially manufactured firearms that we believe have been altered to be permanently incapable of accepting detachable magazines. However, we have warned those manufacturers that other law enforcement entities could view the legality of those firearms differently. Local law enforcement agencies and district attorneys could consider the firearms to be capable of accepting detachable magazines, and therefore assault weapons under California law.
- For your protection, you should ensure that your firearm either does not have the capacity to accept a detachable magazine, or does not have any of the features listed in Penal Code §12276.1(a)(1).
- You have the responsibility to protect yourself from the wide variety of potential law enforcement entities and how they may view the legality of your modification.

INFORMATIVE DIGEST/POLICY STATEMENT OVERVIEW

Penal Code (PC) section 12276.1 identifies restricted assault weapons based on specific characteristics or features. Currently, California Code of Regulations (CCR) section 978.20 of Title 11 defines five terms used in § 12276.1 PC. The proposed amendment will define a sixth term, “capacity to accept a detachable magazine”, as meaning “capable of accommodating a detachable magazine, but shall not be construed to include a firearm that has been permanently altered so that it cannot accommodate a detachable magazine.”

At the hearing, any person may present oral or written comments regarding the proposed regulatory action. The Department requests, but does not require, that persons who make oral comments also submit written copy of their testimony at the hearing.

DISCLOSURES REGARDING THE PROPOSED ACTION

The Department has made the following determinations:

Mandate on local agencies or school districts: None

Cost or savings to any state agency: None.

Cost to any local agency or school district which must be reimbursed in accordance with Government Code sections 17500 through 17630: None.

Other nondiscretionary cost or savings imposed on local agencies: None.

Cost or savings in federal funding to the state: None.

Significant, statewide adverse economic impact directly affecting business, including the ability of California businesses to compete with businesses in other states: None.

Chapter 12.8 Department of Justice Regulations for Assault Weapons and Large Capacity Magazines

Article 2. Definitions of Terms Used to Identify Assault Weapons

~~978.20~~ 5469. Definitions

The following definitions apply to terms used in the identification of assault weapons pursuant to Penal Code section 12276.1:

- (a) “detachable magazine” means any ammunition feeding device that can be removed readily from the firearm with neither disassembly of the firearm action nor use of a tool being required. A bullet or ammunition cartridge is considered a tool. Ammunition feeding device includes any belted or linked ammunition, but does not include clips, en bloc clips, or stripper clips that load cartridges into the magazine.
- (b) “flash suppressor” means any device designed, intended, or that functions to perceptibly reduce or redirect muzzle flash from the shooter’s field of vision.
- (c) “forward pistol grip” means a grip that allows for a pistol style grasp forward of the trigger.
- (d) “pistol grip that protrudes conspicuously beneath the action of the weapon” means a grip that allows for a pistol style grasp in which the web of the trigger hand (between the thumb and index finger) can be placed below the top of the exposed portion of the trigger while firing.
- (e) “thumbhole stock” means a stock with a hole that allows the thumb of the trigger hand to penetrate into or through the stock while firing.
- (f)(1) “capacity to accept a detachable magazine” means ~~capable of accommodating a detachable magazine, but shall not be construed to include a firearm that has been permanently altered so that it cannot accommodate a detachable magazine.~~ currently able to receive a detachable magazine or readily modifiable to receive a detachable magazine.

- (2) A firearm is readily modifiable to receive a detachable magazine if it has a device that prevents the magazine from being released but allows the firearm to accept a detachable magazine when the device is removed, reversed, or disengaged, without alterations to the magazine well.
- (3) A firearm is not readily modifiable to receive a detachable magazine if, for example:
 - (A) it does not have a magazine well;
 - (B) the magazine is fixed to the receiver by a continuous ribbon of welding around the perimeter of the magazine well, or by multiple ribbons of welding that are each at least one half inch in length;
 - (C) the magazine is fixed to the receiver with a rivet (or other irreversible locking device) that is driven through the magazine well and fixed in place with epoxy; or
 - (D) the modification requires disassembly of the action.

2. State agency or department being challenged:

California Department of Justice, Bureau of Firearms (“BOF”)

3. Description of the Underground Regulation and the Department Action By Which it was Issued

A document entitled “IMPORTANT NOTICE California Department of Justice Information Regarding the Sale/Possession of Unnamed AR-15/AK 47 ‘Series’ Firearms” available from the California Department of Justice, Bureau of Firearms homepage and more specifically located at: <http://ag.ca.gov/firearms/forms/pdf/AWpolicyrev4.pdf> (Attachment A hereto) (hereinafter, “Important Notice”) published on or about May 9, 2006.

4. The Legal basis for believing that the guideline, criterion, bulletin, provision in a manual, instruction, order, standard of general application, or other rule or procedure is a regulation as defined in Section 11342.600 of the Government Code and that no express statutory exemption to the requirements of the APA is applicable:

The California Administrative Procedure Act, California Government Code §11400 et seq., defines “regulation” to mean “every rule, regulation, order, or standard of general application . . . adopted by any state agency to implement, interpret, or make specific the law enforced or administered by it . . .” §11342.600.

Furthermore, “[a] regulation subject to the APA . . . has two principal identifying characteristics. . . . First, the agency must intend its rule to apply generally, rather than in a specific case. The rule need not, however, apply universally; a rule applies generally so long as it declares how a certain class of cases will be decided. . . . Second, the rule must ‘implement, interpret, or make specific the law enforced or administered by the agency, or govern the agency’s procedure.’ ” Tidewater Marine Western, Inc. v. Bradshaw, 14 Cal. 4th 557, 571 (1996) (emphasis added) (internal citations omitted).

A) The “Important Notice” is a Regulation

The “Important Notice” is a “regulation” within the meaning of §11342.600, as it purports to generally inform law enforcement officials, firearm dealers and the public of requirements of Penal Code §12276.1 and 11 C.C.R. 5469.¹

B) The “Important Notice” Applies Generally

This rule applies generally, since it applies to all owners and sellers of semi automatic centerfire rifles in the State, therefore satisfying the first element of Tidewater.²

C) The “Important Notice” Purports to Implement, Interpret and Make Specific California Penal Code § 12276.1

The “Important Notice” is an attempt to promulgate a completely new rule that requires owners of semiautomatic centerfire rifles that are modified to be temporarily or currently incapable of accepting detachable magazines (and have features listed in 12276.1) to permanently alter their rifle or face felony criminal prosecution.³

¹ “Law enforcement officials, firearm dealers and the public should be aware that semiautomatic centerfire rifles that are modified to be temporarily incapable of accepting detachable magazines, but can be restored to accommodate detachable magazines, are assault weapons if they have any of the features listed in §12276.1(a)(1).” Important Notice, para 3 (emphasis added).

² The “Important Notice” purports to apply to all “[i]ndividuals who own firearms that meet the generic definition of assault weapons banned by SB 23.” Important Notice, para 4.

³ “Individuals who own firearms that meet the generic definition of assault weapons banned by SB 23 must do one of the following in order to comply with existing law: remove the features, sell the firearm (without the features), or permanently alter the firearm so that it cannot accept a detachable magazine.” Important Notice, para 4 (emphasis added).

The rule as stated in the “Important Notice” thus attempts to interpret and make specific⁴ the definition of exactly which semiautomatic centerfire rifles are prohibited in the State by Penal Code §12276.1 and 11 C.C.R. 5469, therefore satisfying the second element of Tidewater.

No express APA exemption in Government Code §11340.9 applies to the “Important Notice” and there are no express exemptions to the APA for the BOF in the relevant Penal Code sections.⁵

5. Legal Basis for why the “Important Notice” is an underground regulation

A) Background

In 1999, the California Legislature passed SB-23⁶ which added a generic definition to the Assault Weapons Control Act in §12276.1 of the Penal Code. This definition hinged on whether or not a semi-automatic centerfire rifle had a “detachable magazine” and any of a list of prohibited features (such as a pistol grip, collapsible stock or “flash hider”).

However, such prohibited features are perfectly legal under SB-23 as long as the rifle has a fixed magazine (i.e., does not have a “detachable magazine”).

To further define and implement the newly enacted provisions of SB-23, the BOF (then known as The Department of Firearms) conducted a regulatory process in compliance with the APA that resulted in the enactment of 11 C.C.R. 5469 (the “2000 Rulemaking”).

Part of this rulemaking process addressed the exact definition of fixed magazine vs. “detachable magazine”, as will be shown infra.

From 2000 to 2006, little changed regarding the enforcement of Penal Code §12276.1 and 11 C.C.R. 5469. Then, in early 2006 certain firearms enthusiasts and firearms sellers realized the implications of the combined impact of Harrot v. County of Kings (2001) 25 Cal.4th 1138 and the expiration of the Federal Assault Weapons Ban, on California law.

Sellers and enthusiasts realized that they could legally import, buy, sell, and assemble rifles that were very similar (but not identical) to rifles that were considered “Assault

⁴ “A semiautomatic centerfire rifle with the capacity to accept a detachable magazine and any of the generic features listed in Penal Code §12276.1(a)(1) is contraband unless it was registered prior to January 1, 2001.” “Important Notice”, para 2 (emphasis added).

⁵ AB-2728 which passed in 2006 and became effective January 1, 2007 removed the only unrelated exception to the APA that the BOF had in the Penal Code relating to firearms.

⁶ Bill text and legislative history available at http://www.leginfo.ca.gov/cgi-bin/postquery?bill_number=sb_23&sess=9900&house=B&author=perata

Weapons” in California as long as they complied with Penal Code §12276 (so called “named assault weapons”) and the feature restrictions in §12276.1 as interpreted by 11 C.C.R. 5469.

As outlined above, the feature restrictions contained in §12276.1 prohibit, e.g. pistol grips, collapsible stocks and/or flash hidere only on rifles that have a “detachable magazine,” thus making the definition of what exactly constitutes a fixed magazine to be of paramount importance.

In an attempt to make an end-run around the plain meaning of the law that defines fixed magazines, the BOF responded to this influx of new rifles with the “Important Notice.”

In effect, the “Important Notice” is an underground regulation purporting to interpret Penal Code §12276.1 and 11 C.C.R. 5469 in a way that the legislature did not intend or require, and that the BOF knows or should have known is outside of the BOF’s own previous interpretations of Penal Code §12276.1.

In fact, the “Important Notice” substantially changes the definition of fixed magazine, thereby turning tens of thousands of firearms owners who relied on the previous definition of a fixed magazine, into felons.⁷

B) The Current Definition of Fixed Magazine Does Not Require “Permanent Alteration”

In the 2000 Rulemaking, BOF promulgated the definition of “detachable magazine” as:

(a) "detachable magazine" means any ammunition feeding device that can be removed readily from the firearm with neither disassembly of the firearm action nor use of a tool being required. A bullet or ammunition cartridge is considered a tool.⁸

Issues with a type of rifle known as the “SKS” led to the definition of what would be considered a fixed magazine (and therefore not a “detachable magazine”) rifle subject to §12276.1. The BOF stated in the Final Statement of Reasons for the 2000 Rulemaking (emphasis added):

Comment

A1.12 - The SKS rifle with a detachable magazine cannot be changed without using a bullet tip as a tool, thus the regulations conflict with the specific listing of SKS rifles with detachable magazines in the Roberti-Roos Assault Weapons

⁷ Penal Code §12280. (a) (1) Any person who, within this state, manufactures or causes to be manufactured, distributes, transports, or imports into the state, keeps for sale, or offers or exposes for sale, or who gives or lends any assault weapon or any .50 BMG rifle, except as provided by this chapter, is guilty of a felony, and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for four, six, or eight years.

⁸ Title 11 California Code of Regulations 5469 (a)

Control Act. DOJ has no authority to contradict existing law.

Response

The Department disagrees with the comment because any magazine that requires the use of a bullet or any other tool for its removal is a fixed magazine, not a detachable magazine. The SKS with a true detachable magazine does not require a bullet or any other tool to remove and is a controlled assault weapon under Penal Code section 12276. Identifying a bullet as a tool allows for the proper categorization of an SKS with a fixed magazine. Therefore, the SKS referred to in the comment has a fixed, not detachable magazine.⁹

There is no requirement in either Penal Code §12276.1 or 11 C.C.R. 5469 that a rifle with a fixed magazine be permanently altered in any way. Quite the opposite is true, in fact. As outlined above, the BOF has clearly stated that rifles that required merely the use of a “bullet tip” to remove the magazine were nonetheless classified as having a fixed magazine.

Furthermore, if the intent of the legislature was to require that rifles be “permanently altered,” the statutory language would have said so. However, the statutory plain language of SB-23 makes no mention of “permanently altered” in §12276.1 (a)¹⁰.

In the Final Statement of Reasons for the 2000 Rulemaking the BOF itself reiterated that that modifications to semiautomatic rifles did not need to be “permanent:”

Comment

C5.04 - The firearm should have to be permanently modified so that it lacks the capacity to accept a detachable magazine or any of the offensive features in order for the Department to accept cancellation of a registration.

Response

The Department disagrees with the comment. Registration cancellation is not exclusive to modification of the firearm, nor does the Department believe permanent modification is required.¹¹

(emphasis added)

⁹ Final Statement of Reasons for the 2000 Rulemaking, <http://ag.ca.gov/firearms/regs/fsor.pdf>, Attachment A pg. 2.

¹⁰ Compare that with the definitions applicable to “large-capacity magazines” passed concurrently in SB-23; §12276.1. (d) (2) “Capacity to accept more than 10 rounds” shall mean capable of accommodating more than 10 rounds, but shall not be construed to include a feeding device that has been permanently altered so that it cannot accommodate more than 10 rounds.

¹¹ Ibid. Attachment A pg. 36

Paragraphs 3 and 4 of the “Important Notice” now purport to interpret both Penal Code §12276.1 (a) (1) and 11 C.C.R. 5469 by adding a new test of whether a modification to a rifle is temporary or permanent to the test of whether a rifle has a detachable magazine (and is therefore regulated by Penal Code §12276.1).

Paragraphs 3 and 4 of the “Important Notice” state:

Law enforcement officials, firearm dealers and the public should be aware that semiautomatic centerfire rifles that are modified to be temporarily incapable of accepting detachable magazines, but can be restored to accommodate detachable magazines, are assault weapons if they have any of the features listed in §12276.1(a)(1). The Department intends to exercise its power pursuant to Penal Code section 12276.5(i) to adopt regulations as “necessary or proper to carry out the purposes and intent” of California law to ban assault weapons in the state.

Individuals who own firearms that meet the generic definition of assault weapons banned by SB 23 must do one of the following in order to comply with existing law: remove the features, sell the firearm (without the features), or permanently alter the firearm so that it cannot accept a detachable magazine.

(emphasis added)

This is the exact opposite of what the BOF has earlier stated in the Final Statement of Reasons for the 2000 Rulemaking, and is in direct conflict with the law as written.

It is black letter law that an administrative agency may not alter, extend, limit, or enlarge a statute that it administers (First Industrial Loan Co. v. Daugherty (1945) 26 Cal.2d 545, 550.) The BOF’s attempt to add a new test of whether a rifle is “temporarily incapable” of accepting a detachable magazine (vs. “permanently altered”) is thus an impermissible attempt to enlarge the number and types of rifles controlled by Penal Code §12276.1 and §12280(a)(1)&(2) while directly contradicting existing law and previous BOF opinions.

Therefore, the “Important Notice” should be removed from BOF’s website and no further attempt to issue or enforce a new definition of rifles controlled by Penal Code §12276.1 should be attempted without opening a new APA compliant proposed regulation process.

6. The petition raises an issue of considerable public importance requiring prompt resolution.

Various estimates place the number of newly imported semiautomatic centerfire rifles during the past 18 months at between 30,000 to more than 50,000 rifles¹³. Owners and sellers of these rifles are now unclear whether they can simply follow the law as written in the Penal Code and the C.C.R. or whether they have to take additional and expensive steps to modify their rifles comply with the law. Some rifle owners already have been arrested and their cases have taken additional time and expense for both citizens and District Attorneys to resolve due to confusion caused by the BOF's underground regulation of Penal Code §12276.1 (a) (1) and 11 C.C.R. 5469.¹⁴

Of additional concern are the rifle owners who relied upon the 2000 Rulemaking to clarify whether they actually had to register their rifles as assault weapons based on the definition in 11 CCR, Section 5469 (a)¹⁵. Those who took the plain language of the law to mean that they did not have to permanently alter their rifle did not take the opportunity to register during the limited window of time in 2000, as they thought their rifles were exempt (since those rifles had a fixed magazine).

They now are in a constitutionally difficult position as they are either unintentional felons or are forced by the BOF's underground regulation to make permanent and expensive changes to their property (and be deprived thereof in contravention to their 5th Amendment rights and their right to be free from "ex-post-facto" law).

As outlined above, the "Important Notice" most certainly meets the criteria of an underground regulation. The "Important Notice" specifically and directly contradicts existing law. The "Important Notice" contradicts the BOF's own legitimately adopted regulations and previous statutory interpretation.

Furthermore, should the "Important Notice" be enforced, it contradicts individual rights under both the Federal Constitution and the Constitution of the State of California, and turns thousands of otherwise law-abiding California citizens into felons.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

California Department of Justice Information Regarding the Sale/Possession of Unnamed AR- 15/AK 47 “Series” Firearms

The Department of Justice (hereafter “the Department”) has received numerous inquiries from the public and firearms industry personnel about the legality of various AR-15/AK 47 “series” style firearms that have not been named by the Department as “series” assault weapons. The Department believes that the public and law enforcement are best served by reference to the generic definition of assault weapons set forth in SB 23, rather than reliance upon a scheme of identifying assault weapons by name. Therefore, the Department will not update the list of “series” assault weapons.

SB 23 has banned the possession, sale and manufacture of firearms with the characteristics of assault weapons as defined in California Penal Code §12276.1 since January 1, 2000. A semiautomatic centerfire rifle with the capacity to accept a detachable magazine and any of the generic features listed in Penal Code §12276.1(a)(1) is contraband unless it was registered prior to January 1, 2001. It is illegal to manufacture, cause to be manufactured, distribute, transport, import, keep for sale, offer or expose for sale, give or lend such a weapon, except as permitted by law.

Law enforcement officials, firearm dealers and the public should be aware that semiautomatic centerfire rifles that are modified to be temporarily incapable of accepting detachable magazines, but can be restored to accommodate detachable magazines, are assault weapons if they have any of the features listed in §12276.1(a)(1). The Department intends to exercise its power pursuant to Penal Code section 12276.5(i) to adopt regulations as “necessary or proper to carry out the purposes and intent” of California law to ban assault weapons in the state.

Individuals who own firearms that meet the generic definition of assault weapons banned by SB 23 must do one of the following in order to comply with existing law: remove the features, sell the firearm (without the features), or permanently alter the firearm so that it cannot accept a detachable magazine.

It remains illegal to possess assault weapons banned by name (either in statute or regulation), unless those assault weapons are registered and possessed in accordance with state law. The time limits for registration, which depend on the make and model of the assault weapon, are set forth in Penal Code §12285.

On July 12, 2007, the Office of Administrative Law received your petition alleging that the Department of Justice, Bureau of Firearms has issued, used, enforced, or attempted to enforce an underground regulation. The specific alleged underground regulation is:

The Department of Justice, Bureau of Firearms issued a document entitled, "IMPORTANT NOTICE California Department of Justice Information Regarding the Sale/Possession of Unnamed AR-15/AK 47 "Series" Firearms" which informed owners and dealers of firearms that semiautomatic centerfire rifles that are modified to be temporarily incapable of accepting detachable magazines, but that can be restored to accommodate detachable magazines are assault weapons if they have any of the features listed in Penal Code §12276.1(a)(1). It also notifies these individuals that they must remove the features, sell the firearm without the features or permanently alter the firearm in order to comply with the law.

After reviewing your petition and the accompanying documentation, we accept the petition for consideration. Pursuant to Title 1, California Code of Regulations, section 270, please note the following time table:

California Department of Justice, Bureau of Firearms ("BoF")

3. Description of the Underground Regulation and the Department Action By Which it was Issued

BoF is promulgating an Underground Regulation as exemplified in a letter dated September 29, 2008 to Mr. Mike Badella of Dolorian Capital, Inc. of Fresno (Attachment A hereto) (hereinafter, the Capacity to Accept Letter or "CTA Letter") which is in response to Mr. Badella's letter dated September 25, 2008 (Attachment B hereto.) That letter states in pertinent part:

Regarding your question about using the "Prince 50 Kit" it is our understanding that such a device is designed to temporarily attach a magazine to a rifle, but allow the magazine to be removed from the rifle with the use of a tool. While there is no question that such a configuration would render the magazine of a rifle to be non-detachable, it is unclear whether such a configuration negates the rifle's "capacity to accept" a detachable magazine. Since there are no statutes,

Gene Hoffman
The Calguns Foundation

case law, or regulations concerning whether a rifle that is loaded with a fixed, removable magazine can also be considered to have the “capacity to accept a detachable magazine,” we are unable to declare rifles configured with the “Prince 50 Kit” or “bullet button” to be legal or illegal. To do so without regulation would create an illegal “underground regulation.”

Attachment A, para 5, (emphasis added.)

4. The Legal basis for believing that the guideline, criterion, bulletin, provision in a manual, instruction, order, standard of general application, or other rule or procedure is a regulation as defined in Section 11342.600 of the Government Code and that no express statutory exemption to the requirements of the APA is applicable:

The California Administrative Procedure Act, California Government Code §11400 et seq., defines “regulation” to mean “every rule, regulation, order, or standard of general application . . . adopted by any state agency to implement, interpret, or make specific the law enforced or administered by it” §11342.600.

Furthermore, “[a] regulation subject to the APA . . . has two principal identifying characteristics. . . . First, the agency must intend its rule to apply generally, rather than in a specific case. The rule need not, however, apply universally; a rule applies generally so long as it declares how a certain class of cases will be decided. . . . Second, the rule must ‘implement, interpret, or make specific the law enforced or administered by the agency, or govern the agency’s procedure.’ ” Tidewater Marine Western, Inc. v. Bradshaw, 14 Cal. 4th 557, 571 (1996) (emphasis added, internal citations omitted).

A) The “CTA Letter” is a Regulation

The “CTA Letter” is a “regulation” within the meaning of §11342.600, as it attempts to supplement, interpret, revise, and make specific the validly adopted definition of the term “detachable magazine” in Penal Code §12276.1 and 11 C.C.R. 5469¹ by re-interpreting the phrase “capacity to accept a detachable magazine.” On knowledge and belief the “CTA Letter” materially reflects the standard of general application that BoF provides to District Attorneys throughout California when they inquire about the legality of various non-detachable magazine semiautomatic rifles.

B) The “CTA Letter” Applies Generally

¹ “While there is no question that such a configuration would render the magazine of a rifle to be non-detachable, it is unclear whether such a configuration negates the rifle’s ‘capacity to accept’ a detachable magazine.” (emphasis added).

Gene Hoffman
The Calguns Foundation

Page 3
“Capacity To Accept” Underground Regulation

2/25/2009

This rule applies generally, as it applies to all owners and sellers of semiautomatic centerfire rifles in the State, therefore satisfying the first element of Tidewater.²

C) The “CTA Letter” Purports to Implement, Interpret and Make Specific California Penal Code § 12276.1

The “CTA Letter” is an attempt to promulgate a new interpretation of the term “detachable magazine” for semiautomatic centerfire rifles that are modified to be incapable of accepting detachable magazines (and have features listed in 12276.1.) This is an attempt to force owners to alter the configuration of their rifle or face felony criminal prosecution.³

The interpretation as stated in the “CTA Letter” thus attempts to interpret⁴ and make specific the definition of exactly which semiautomatic centerfire rifles are prohibited in the State by Penal Code §12276.1 and 11 C.C.R. 5469 by disingenuously inserting some heretofore unknown uncertainty in the definition of the APA defined term “detachable magazine” supposedly brought about by the phrase “capacity to accept,” therefore satisfying the second element of Tidewater.

No express APA exemption in Government Code §11340.9 applies to the “CTA Letter” and there are no express exemptions to the APA for the BOF in the relevant Penal Code sections.⁵

5. Legal Basis for why the “CTA Letter” is an underground regulation

A) Background

Penal Code §12276.1 defines certain semiautomatic centerfire rifles as “assault weapons” that are prohibited from being manufactured, transported or possessed in California on penalty of a felony. One definition of “assault weapon” hinges on whether or not a semiautomatic centerfire rifle has a “detachable magazine” and any of a list of prohibited features (such as a pistol grip, telescoping stock or flash hider).

² The “CTA Letter” applies to all firearms manufacturers and sellers regulated by BoF, “This letter is in response to your request dated September 25, 2008 for advice about whether it would be legal to sell a particular rifle in California.” “CTA Letter”, para 1.

³ “[I]t is unclear whether such a configuration negates the rifle’s ‘capacity to accept a detachable magazine.’ Since there are no statutes, case law, or regulations concerning whether a rifle that is loaded with a fixed, removable magazine can also be considered to have the ‘capacity to accept a detachable magazine,’ we are unable to declare rifles configured with the ‘Prince 50 Kit’ or ‘bullet button’ to be legal...” “CTA Letter”, para 5 (emphasis added).

⁴ “[I]t is unclear whether such a configuration negates the rifle’s ‘capacity to accept a detachable magazine.’” “CTA Letter”, para 5 (emphasis added).

⁵ AB-2728 which passed in 2006 and became effective January 1, 2007 removed the only unrelated exception to the APA that the BOF had in the Penal Code relating to firearms.

Gene Hoffman
The Calguns Foundation

Page 4
"Capacity To Accept" Underground Regulation

2/25/2009

However, such prohibited features are perfectly legal under Penal Code §12276.1 as long as the rifle has a fixed magazine (i.e., does not have a "detachable magazine").

BoF (then known as The Department of Firearms) conducted a regulatory process in compliance with the APA that resulted in the enactment of 11 C.C.R. 5469 (the "2000 Rulemaking".)

Part of this rulemaking process addressed the exact definition of fixed magazine vs. "detachable magazine", as will be shown infra.

In an attempt to make an end-run around the meaning of the law that defines the nature and scope of fixed magazines, the BoF recently promulgated an underground regulation that attempted to require permanence for any non detachable or "fixed magazine" rifle. Mr. Hoffman petitioned OAL in a letter dated July 11, 2007 to review that underground regulation. OAL accepted that petition for review and assigned it a reference number of CTU-07-0712-01. BoF subsequently withdrew the "permanence" underground regulation in a questionably worded certification letter to OAL from Attorney General Brown dated September 20, 2007.

While BoF appears to be complying with its certification that it will not illegally take the position that permanence is required for a fixed magazine, BoF has begun to promulgate a new interpretation of the phrase "capacity to accept a detachable magazine" that is in conflict with its own previous interpretations and is incorrect as a matter of law.

B) The Current Definition of "Detachable Magazine" Is Not Altered By The Phrase "Capacity To Accept"

The Phrase "Non-detachable" Applies to Rifles, not to Magazines

Regarding your question about using the "Prince 50 Kit" it is our understanding that such a device is designed to temporarily attach a magazine to a rifle, but allow the magazine to be removed from the rifle with the use of a tool. While there is no question that such a configuration would render the magazine of a rifle to be non-detachable, it is unclear whether such a configuration negates the rifle's "capacity to accept" a detachable magazine.

- Attachment A [emphasis added]

First, when BoF states, "there is no question that such a configuration would render the magazine of a rifle to be non-detachable," they misinterpret the actual test in the Penal Code. To wit, PC §12276.1(a)(1) states clearly that the "non-detachable" nature refers to rifles, not to magazines.

The statute reads in relevant part, "[a] semiautomatic, centerfire rifle that has the capacity to accept a detachable magazine." The word "that" refers to "a ... rifle" and not

Gene Hoffman
The Calguns Foundation

a magazine. Once the rifle no longer has the capacity to accept a "detachable magazine" as that term is defined in 11 C.C.R.⁶, it can no longer be defined as an "assault weapon" for purposes of the Penal Code.⁷

The Penal Code and C.C.R are Quite Clear Regarding Capacity to Accept

. . . it is unclear whether such a configuration negates the rifle's "capacity to accept" a detachable magazine. Since there are no statutes, case law, or regulations concerning whether a rifle that is loaded with a fixed, removable magazine can also be considered to have the "capacity to accept a detachable magazine," we are unable to declare rifles configured with the "Prince 50 Kit" or "bullet button" to be legal or illegal.

Attachment A [emphasis added]

Second, BoF states that it is "unclear whether such a configuration negates the rifle's 'capacity to accept' a detachable magazine." However, the Penal Code and the C.C.R. are both quite clear on the matter.

To ascertain the plain meaning of the statute, as modified by BoF's own APA-compliant rulemaking, one merely substitutes the appropriate definition from 11 C.C.R. 5469 into the text of PC §12276.1(a)(1) as follows:

12276.1. (a) Notwithstanding Section 12276, "assault weapon" shall also mean any of the following:

- (1) A semiautomatic, centerfire rifle that has the capacity to accept any ammunition feeding device that can be removed readily from the firearm with neither disassembly of the firearm action nor use of a tool being required.⁸ A bullet or ammunition cartridge is considered a tool. [and] any of the following..

[Emphasis Added]

Contrary to BoF's attempt to assert that there is no statute or regulation on point, there in fact is a statute and a validly adopted regulation directly on point.

A rifle correctly configured with a "Prince 50 Kit" or "bullet button" device simply does not have the capacity to accept any ammunition feeding device that can be removed

⁶ Section 5469 defines "detachable magazine" as "any ammunition feeding device that can be removed readily from the firearm with neither disassembly of the firearm action nor use of a tool being required."

⁷ Assuming that it is at least 30 inches long and does not have a fixed magazine capable of holding more than 10 rounds.

⁸ 11 C.C.R. 5469.

Gene Hoffman
The Calguns Foundation

readily from the firearm with neither disassembly of the firearm action nor use of a tool being required.

“Fixed Removable Magazines” were Contemplated by the 2000 Rulemaking

Since there are no statutes, case law, or regulations concerning whether a rifle that is loaded with a fixed, removable magazine can also be considered to have the “capacity to accept a detachable magazine,” we are unable to declare rifles configured with the “Prince 50 Kit” or “bullet button” to be legal or illegal.

Attachment A [emphasis added]

Third, the BoF’s own 2000 Rulemaking that lead to 11 C.C.R. 5469 shows that BoF fully contemplated “fixed removable magazines”, in the Final Statement of Reasons:

Comment

A1.12 - The SKS rifle with a detachable magazine cannot be changed without using a bullet tip as a tool, thus the regulations conflict with the specific listing of SKS rifles with detachable magazines in the Roberti-Roos Assault Weapons Control Act. DOJ has no authority to contradict existing law.

Response

The Department disagrees with the comment because any magazine that requires the use of a bullet or any other tool for its removal is a fixed magazine, not a detachable magazine. The SKS with a true detachable magazine does not require a bullet or any other tool to remove and is a controlled assault weapon under Penal Code section 12276. Identifying a bullet as a tool allows for the proper categorization of an SKS with a fixed magazine. Therefore, the SKS referred to in the comment has a fixed, not detachable magazine.

[Emphasis added]

If it is true that BoF cannot determine that a rifle with a “fixed removable magazine” is legal, then how can any member of the public determine if the SKS that they thought was legally owned is in fact an “SKS with detachable magazine” long prohibited by the Penal Code?

In reality, both the traditional SKS with a non-detachable magazine and a semiautomatic centerfire rifle with a “bullet button” device installed are functionally identical as to their magazine function. It is an underground regulation to attempt to claim that either or both are prohibited.

Gene Hoffman
The Calguns Foundation

Page 7
"Capacity To Accept" Underground Regulation

2/25/2009

Any attempt to assert that SKS rifles are prohibited would also be an unadoptable regulation, as the BoF does not have the authority to contradict existing law as BoF noted in the 2000 Rulemaking.

To Declare a Rifle Legal is Not the Same as Promulgating an Underground Regulation

Finally, BoF's assertion that to declare a rifle legal would amount to an underground regulation, is incorrect as a matter of law.

Government Code Section 11340.9(f) exempts any rule or interpretation that would be considered, "[a] regulation that embodies the only legally tenable interpretation of a provision of law." Correctly installed, a rifle equipped with a "Prince 50 Kit" or a "bullet button" device follows the only legally tenable interpretation of PC §12276.1(a)(1) and 11 C.C.R. 5469. Therefore, it is within the authority of BoF to declare via advisory letter that rifles so equipped are in fact not "assault weapons."

PC §12276.5 (c) requires the BoF to adopt rules and regulations that are necessary and proper to carry out the purposes and intent of the section. If the agency tasked with interpreting the statutory scheme finds the scheme "unclear," then how can District Attorneys, law enforcement agencies, and their personnel, courts, or the general public determine what is or is not an "assault weapon?"

Conclusion

The attempt by BoF to legally embellish upon its own validly adopted C.C.R. provisions is specifically prohibited by the APA as interpreted by the California courts – see Union of American Physicians and Dentists v. Kizer (1990) 223 Cal.App.3d 490, 272 Cal.Rptr. 886.

6. The petition raises an issue of considerable public importance requiring prompt resolution.

Owners and sellers of these rifles are now unclear whether they can simply follow the law as written in the Penal Code and the C.C.R. or whether they have to take additional and expensive steps to modify their rifles comply with the law. Rifle owners have been and continue to be arrested and their cases have taken additional time and expense for both citizens and District Attorneys to resolve due to confusion caused by the BoF's underground regulation of the phrase "capacity to accept a detachable magazine" in Penal Code §12276.1 (a) (1) and 11 C.C.R. 5469.⁹

⁹ The Calguns Foundation has provided, and continues to provide, technical and financial assistance to individual defendants who have been arrested for possession of assault rifles. In four (4) recent cases in Northern California (that the Foundation has been associated with) the charges were dismissed and/or the D.A. declined to file a case after it was pointed out that tools were required to remove the magazines from the rifles. In at least one case, an individual had to post a $60,000 bond ($6,000 in non-refundable cash to a

Of additional concern are the rifle owners who relied upon the 2000 Rulemaking to clarify whether they actually had to register their rifles as assault weapons based on the definition in 11 CCR, Section 5469 (a)¹⁰. Those who took the plain language of the law to mean that they did not have to alter their rifle did not take the opportunity to register during the limited window of time in 2000, as they thought their rifles were exempt (since those rifles had a fixed magazine as those are defined in the 2000 Rulemaking).

These people are now in a constitutionally difficult position as they are either unintentional felons or are forced by the BoF’s underground regulation to make expensive changes to their property (and be deprived thereof in contravention to their 5th Amendment rights and their right to be free from “ex-post-facto” law).

As outlined above, the “CTA Letter” most certainly meets the criteria of an underground regulation. The “CTA Letter” specifically and directly contradicts existing law. The “CTA Letter” contradicts and attempts to confuse the BoF’s own legitimately adopted regulations and previous statutory interpretation.

bail bondsman) to get out of jail on a felony charge of Assault Weapon possession. This was a case where the D.A. declined to even file criminal charges after the arrest, but the individual is still out the $6,000 paid to the bondsman.

Re: Request for Approval of HAS-15 Rifle

Dear Mr. Badella:

This letter is in response to your request dated September 25, 2008 for advice about whether it would be legal to sell a particular rifle in California.

The California Department of Justice (DOJ) has never had the legal duty or authority to approve a rifle, shotgun, or pistol for sale in the state on the basis that the firearm is not an assault weapon. At one time, DOJ had the legal authority pursuant to Section 12276.5, to declare a firearm to be a "series" assault weapon, or to obtain a court order that a firearm was an assault weapon. (See Harrott v. County of Kings (2001) 25 Cal.4th 1138, 1155.) However, that authority was revoked by statute in 2007. (Stats. 2006, ch. 793 (AB 2728).) Under current law, DOJ has the duty to prepare the Assault Weapons Guide and distribute the guide to law enforcement. (§ 12276.5, subd. (a).) DOJ's duty is essentially administrative. Consequently, determining what types of firearms are prohibited pursuant to Section 12276.1 is for the courts. (Burden v. Snowden (1992) 2 Cal.4th 556, 562.)

An agency is prohibited from adopting a regulation -- an interpretation of the law intended for general application -- unless that regulation has been formally adopted pursuant to the Administrative Procedures Act (APA). (Gov. Code, §§ 11340.5, subd. (a), 11342.600.) An interpretation of the law intended for general application that is not adopted in compliance with the APA is an illegal "underground regulation" that is entitled to no weight by the courts of the state. (Morillion v. Royal Packing Co. (2000) 22 Cal.4th 575, 581-582.) Rather, an interpretive policy is void when promulgated in violation of the APA. (Tidewater Marine Western, Inc. v. Bradshaw (1996) 14 Cal.4th 557, 571.)

Although DOJ cannot adopt general policies about whether a class or type of firearm is an assault weapon without complying with the APA, we can provide you with general information about California law governing assault weapons. A semiautomatic centerfire rifle with the "capacity to accept a detachable magazine" and any of a number of specified features, such as a "pistol grip that protrudes conspicuously below the action of the weapon," is an "assault weapon" under California law. (§ 12276.1, subd. (a).) DOJ regulations clarify that a "detachable magazine" is "any ammunition feeding device that can be removed with neither disassembly of the action nor use of a tool being required." (Cal. Code Regs., tit. 11, §978.20, subd. (b).)

Regarding your question about using the "Prince 50 Kit," it is our understanding that such a device is designed to temporarily attach a magazine to a rifle, but allow the magazine to be removed from the rifle with the use of a tool. While there is no question that such a configuration would render the magazine of a rifle to be non-detachable, it is unclear whether such a configuration negates the rifle's "capacity to accept" a detachable magazine. Since there are no statutes, case law, or regulations concerning whether a rifle that is loaded with a fixed, removable magazine can also be considered to have the "capacity to accept a detachable magazine," we are unable to declare rifles configured with the "Prince 50 Kit" or "bullet button" to be legal or illegal. To do so without a regulation would create an illegal "underground regulation."

I hope this information is helpful. Please feel free to contact me again if you need further clarification.

Sincerely,

ALISON Y. MERRILEES

We are sales representatives for High Standard Manufacturing Company, Inc. We would like to start selling a California legal variant of the High Standard HSA-15 rifle. We are planning on producing the rifle with a fixed 10 round magazine utilizing the Prince50 kit. I have attached a copy of the Prince50 Designs Instructions.

Would this rifle be legal to sale in the state of California? If not, what would it take to make it a California legal rifle?
